

The image shows a modern, open-plan lounge and bar. On the left, there is a bar with a white countertop and a wooden base, with various bottles of alcohol displayed behind it. Several high-top stools are positioned along the bar. In the center, there is a seating area with a green velvet sofa, a light blue armchair, and a white armchair with a wooden base. A small black coffee table is in front of the sofa. To the right, there is a long wooden table with several chairs, and a large potted plant is visible. The ceiling is white with exposed ductwork and modern lighting fixtures. The overall atmosphere is warm and contemporary.

Choose your catering journey

Whether you are hosting a networking mixer or a launch party, we make feeding your guests easy. As Qube is a production-focused venue, we do not have a commercial kitchen on-site. Therefore, the food that works best in our spaces is "ready-to-serve" - think beautiful canapés, fresh grazing boards, and finger food that allows your guests to mingle freely. Please note, for safety reasons, we operate a strict no-flames policy.

How To Order

You have complete flexibility:

Our Trusted Partners: On the following pages, you will find our curated list of suppliers. We highly recommend them because they know our building, our team, and our logistics - meaning less stress for you on the day.

Organise Your Own: You are welcome to source your own catering! If you choose this route, please just ensure the food arrives ready to serve and that your team handles the setup and clear-down.
