IF... was born in Leeds in 2016 with one simple belief — that great food should feel personal. We're a team of people who genuinely care: about what goes on the plate, where it comes from, and how it makes you feel when you sit down. We build relationships with the suppliers who share that — local bakeries, trusted butchers, family run market stalls — because you can taste the difference when someone gives a damn. This is a place for long mornings, good conversations and food that's made with real intention. Pull up a chair. You're very welcome here.
